

This is My Theatre

Paper Mill Playhouse

We get to ride the bus to the theater.

When we get to the theatre, we get off the bus.

The police officer stops the traffic to help us cross the street.

This is the marquee.
It announces what is playing at the theatre.

The fish pond is right outside the restaurant.

The theatre is built next to a beautiful brook.

Enter through the large white front doors of the theatre.

The Box Office is in the lobby and it is where you buy tickets for the show.

At the concession stand you may buy snacks and drinks.

The fireplace in the lobby is very old.
Video of the show plays on the TV above
the fireplace.

There are bathrooms available if you need to use them before or after the show.

There is an activity area upstairs where you take a break from the show or relax.

There is an activity area upstairs where you take a break from the show or relax.

This is the entrance to the auditorium where you go into the theater.

This is an Usher who will help you find your seat.

This is what the auditorium looks like on the inside.

Everyone in the audience has their own seat.

The audience waits for the show to begin.

Today's performance is called DRAGONS LOVE TACOS.
The actors say lines, sing and dance on stage.
They are very talented.

The actors wear costumes. They are having so much fun. It is fun for us to watch them too. When the show is over we clap for the actors to say thank you.

This is the Gift Shop where you can buy souvenirs to remember your wonderful trip to the theatre.

We hope you had a great time at Paper Mill Playhouse and we invite you to come again soon!

“Theater For Everyone”
Autism-Friendly performances are planned in cooperation with the Paper Mill Autism Advisory Team:
