DOROTHY GANEK

South Orange, NJ

An artist working in a contemporary abstract style who uses recognizable objects, non-objective shapes, and gestural marks to tell her story.

Dorothy was born in Greece where she lived until the age of ten. Those early years provide her with endless memories of inspiration. She recalls the bright Mediterranean light casting strong shadows on white houses and the intense turquoise blue of the Aegean Sea. It's not surprising that a touch of green blue seems to appear in most of her work.

Her childhood experience, combined with the impressions of her everyday environment are what she draws from as an artist.

CALINA HIRIZA

Millburn, NJ

Calina is known for her bold abstract style and experimental techniques on wood.

Her intention is to elicit new states of being for herself and the viewer, and to create awareness of the inner self by allowing one to peek into the unknown.

She was traditionally-trained in the fine arts from a young age, in Romania, where she was born and lived until age 17. Calina holds a BFA and AA from the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York.
