Approximate Employment dates: February 2026 – May 2026

Position Overview

Paper Mill Playhouse seeks an instructor for our Sketch Comedy Youth and Teen course. The instructor will lead youth and teen students ages 9-16 in creative, collaborative comedy training. The course is open level, but instruction should be beginner friendly, as it serves primarily novice students.

The instructor will guide students toward the following learning outcomes: identifying the core elements of a sketch and generating sketch ideas using these elements, collaborating effectively in a writers' room setting, writing short sketch scripts using basic structure, developing clear comedic characters, editing and revising sketches based on feedback, and performing sketches with commitment and clarity.

This position is best suited for a teaching artist with 5 years of experience in theater education, specifically related to writing, comedy, and performance.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan and lead weekly sketch comedy classes
- Guide students in writing and performance
- Rehearse a culminating class sharing for families
- Foster a positive and inclusive classroom environment

Qualifications and Experience

- Experience teaching youth and teens
- Background in sketch comedy, improv, performance
- Strong communication and classroom management skills
- Proficiency and demonstrated experience creating art with youth and teen populations
- Friendly, professional, and flexible attitude with excellent communication skills.

PAPER MILL PLAYHOUSE

- Commitment to equity, diversity, inclusion, and ability to interact effectively with individuals from diverse cultures and socio-economic experiences, free from prejudice and aggressions
- Alignment with Paper Mill Playhouse's mission and values

Apply
